STATE LAND OFFICE, CARMON CITY, NEVADA, October 23, 1900.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE State of Nevada, by virtue of the Act of Congress approved June 16, 1890 (26 Stats. 27), has filed in the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, list No. 283 of lands selected under said Act, that a part of said land is applied for as a patent for said lands; that a part of said land is applied for as a public right-of-way; and a copy thereof, by descriptive subdivisions, has been posted in a convenient place in said United States Land Office for the inspection of all persons interested and the public generally.

Within the next sixty days following the date of this notice, all contestants claim the claim of said State of Nevada, any tract or sub-division described in the list, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than agricultural purposes, will be received and noted by the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D.C.

The following are the sub-divisions described, to wit:

SW 1/4 of SW 1/4, Section 20, T. 10 N., R. 18 E., M. D. M., containing 40 acres.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1900.

A SATANIC VICTORY.

If Bill Stewart were a candidate for Congress in the place of Farrington, the former would not receive 250 votes in the State. The Republicans despise him, and have wisely prohibited his appearance on the stump, not for fear that he would be rotten-egged, for which they would not care, so far as the indignity to Stewart was concerned, but because they knew full well that every word he uttered would multiply votes for Mr. Newlands.

Stewart's mission here is not to carry the State for McKinley, but to defeat Newlands. He feels the Republican national committee into the belief that with a plentiful supply of corruption money, Nevada's three electoral votes could be secured for McKinley, which he knew was a falsehood. But the money was secured and is being used exclusively to effect the defeat of the man whom the arch-traitor, with the malignity that Satan displays in his warfare against righteousness and the believers in benevolent and supreme power of Almighty God, would destroy.

The defeat of Mr. Newlands would fill old Stewart's rotten substitute for a heart with the same malignant joy that is experienced by his co-worker, the devil, after a successful crusade against the enemies of hell's representative on this mundane sphere. It is all very well to abuse the devil, but rank inconsistency accompanies such abuse by aiding and abetting his unholy work. No man in Nevada has the shameless audacity to utter a word of approbation of Stewart or his traitorous course, but there are hundreds who are, unknowingly, pursuing such a course as in fact, and to all practicable purposes, is a manifestation of endorsement of the creature whom they acknowledgingly despise.

The vote of every Democrat or Silver party man for Farrington is water on Stewart's wheel. If Mr. Newlands should be defeated it would enable the despised Senator to return to Washington and boastfully proclaim that his treason to the silver cause had been indorsed by the voters of Nevada, and that would be, apparently at least, what the returns of the election would show.

Is there a Democrat or Silver party man in Nevada who would vote to uphold the course of Wm. M. Stewart, the pitiful being who spends his time seeking in vain for some friendly voice to give him strength? If there is not, there is no valid reason why Mr. Newlands should not receive the vote of every member of both of the new allied parties in the State.

THE INTEREST RATE.

The Democratic and Silver party platforms declare emphatically against any reduction in the rate of interest on State land contracts. Attempts were made at the last two sessions of the legislature to reduce the rate from six to four per cent. At the last session it was understood that C. O. Wallace undertook to pass the bill for a certain sum raised largely from non-resident owners of vast tracts of grazing lands.

Although the bill never reached the Senate, Senator Flanagan was known to be a most active advocate of it, and would unquestionably have taken the lead in its favor if it had reached the body of which he was a member. The bill, if it had become a law, would have reduced the revenue for school purposes from that source, one third. There is no question but another attempt of the same kind will be made at the coming session. Prof. E. D. Jackson, nominee for State Senator of the Democratic and Silver parties, declares publicly and emphatically that, if elected, he will use every effort in his power to insure its defeat. Mr. Wheeler, the Republican nominee, so far as we have heard, has not defined his position upon that subject. The fact, however, that Mr. Flanagan is making annual efforts to secure Mr. Wheeler's election would lead to the inference that his proposed colleague is "sound" upon the interest proposition from the bold-over Senator's point of view.

Mr. FARRINGTON says we should vote for the Republican ticket because of its record. And how shall we vote for Mr. Farrington who has no record?

Mr. FARRINGTON, the friend of silver, says silver is not an issue this year. McKinley and Mark Hanna say it is. Wouldn't it make your head swim?

Mr. COFFIN, the Republican candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, gravely informs his audience that the ethics of the bench forbids a candidate for the Judgeship from talking politics and then proceeds to talk politics for half an hour.

At the meeting at Reno Monday night he lauded Farrington to the skies and at the conclusion of his remarks stated that if the audience did not, after hearing Mr. Farrington, agree with Mr. Coffin's estimate, he would apologize to them. We are waiting for that apology, Mr. Coffin.

Mr. FARRINGTON in his speech Monday night devoted seven minutes to national topics, four minutes to the Republican State platform and sixty-four minutes to denunciation of his opponent. There's a good, big broad-gauge man to send to represent us in the Congress of the United States.

THE LOCAL PROSPECTS

What Prospectors and Miners Are Doing in This Vicinity.

Work in Dogskin camp was closed down yesterday until after election.

F. M. Sellers, a mining man who recently arrived from California, has made some promising locations north of town.

Rafferty & Mickell, mine promoters, expect to have several intending purchasers up from Sacramento and San Francisco in a few days.

Bills Norton, Charlie Chase and Ben Carter got a fair raising assay from their mine on Peavine. A sample—better than the average—yielded $1,460 in gold and silver. The lead is 2½ feet wide and horns gold clear across. This is a fine milling proportion.

It is understood that Charles Bell (his wealthy backer) will contest in the courts their right to hold part of old man Wedekind's bonanza claim. The old piano tuner has the sympathy of the entire community in this plot to wrest from him the property he acquired by years of patient prospecting.

Next Incumbent of Supreme Bench.

By some unfortunate concatenation of circumstances, or other mishaps, the writer of the public meeting in yesterday's JOURNAL omitted mention of Judge Fitzgerald's address. Although brief, it was to the point. Judge Fitzgerald did not deem it wise to make an extended and strongly partisan talk, as he believes that the Supreme bench should be kept out of politics as far as possible. Judge Fitzgerald clinched the good opinion in which he is held by the people of Reno. His record of twelve years as District Judge in this State is an amply sufficient and convincing campaign argument.

Killed at Overton.

W. J. Noyes, well known in this city, met a terrible death at the Overton mills yesterday. He was jammed between two logging cars and lived but a few moments. The body will be brought to Reno this evening for interment. The funeral will take place under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Foresters.

MINES AND MINING

News of Nevada's Leading Industry Clipped From Exchanges.

The Cottonwood mines are employing about thirty men now.

The $80,000 option on the Nevada Company's mining property at Galena, Lander county, bonded to Chicagoans, has expired.

A deposit of tungsten, said to be sufficient to supply the world, has been found on the Virgin river in Lincoln county.

Notwithstanding the general air of quietness about Golconda, her future seems assured, and the promised opening of all her mines will make Golconda one of the lively towns of the State.

The mining industry of Humboldt county, after a long period of comparative inactivity, now gives great promise of becoming once more one of our most flourishing industries and districts that in other days could not be operated profitably will ultimately merge to the front as heavy, profitable ore producers.

Requiescat in Peace.

The funeral of the late John R. Dixon took place yesterday from the family residence, No. 212 Third street, at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. S. Unsworth officiated. The remains were laid to rest in the K. of P. plot, Hillside cemetery. The funeral was largely attended.

Dignity may stoop to conquer, but it never grovels in the dust.

Playtime In the Senate.
Senator Butler once had a bill appropriating $5,000 to build a monument on the Moore's Creek battlefield, North Carolina, which was an especial object of Senator Wolcott's fun.

"Can the senator tell me the date of the battle?" he asked Mr. Butler.

"It was the first battle of the Revolution, 29 days before the battle of Lexington," was the reply.

"But cannot the senator tell me the day and the year?" persisted Mr. Wolcott.

Mr. Butler was stumped. "I can tell the senator tomorrow," he finally remarked.

"Then," replied Mr. Wolcott, "I will let my objection stand until tomorrow also."

A few minutes later Senator Wolcott relented, and Mr. Butler made another effort to get the appropriation agreed to. This time it was Senator Lodge who objected.

"Oh, don't object, Lodge," said Wolcott in a stage whisper; "he'll put the date of the battle forward a year if you are jealous on account of Lexington."

But Mr. Lodge continued to object, and the monument bill remained on the calendar.—Washington Post.

Horseshoes.

Horseshoes are of uncertain date and have caused some dispute among military historians. Nailed shoes were not known by the Greeks, for Xenophon gives minute instructions for hardening the hoof. Nor did the Romans use them. Nero had mules shod with a plate of silver fastened by crossed thongs to the hoof. With Poppea, his later wife, it is said these plates were of gold. The earliest positive evidence of nailed shoes is furnished by the skeleton of a horse found in the tomb of Chilader I (458-91) at Tournay in 1633.

The very people who talk about "vulgar trade" are usually the ones who never pay their bills.—Philadelphia Record.

unanimous call to a seat in the Nevada Assembly.

Ab, Flanigan, you have put your foot in your mouth and made hayes
of Republican hopes in Washoe county.

YOU HAVE BROUGHT THE UNI-VERSITY INTO POLITICS. You have relied upon your noble gift of gab and have disregarded the injunctions of your superiors, your political managers. By your casual, but premeditated, remark (in the interests of the sheepdog trust) to the effect that the nomination of Professor Robert D.

Jackson for Senator from Washoe and Dr. J. Warus Phillips for Assemblyman from Lyon, was a part of a conspiracy to down the State University, you have done irreparable injury to your party (unless you said the words in the interest of General Turritin and Professor Averill, Republican candidates for Regents).

The truth of the matter is that the Republican sack disburbers have dealt so long with the purchasable votes that they do not know MEN when they meet them.

Prof. Jackson and Dr. Phillips are MEN. They hold one thing of greater sacredness than political ambition—

THE WELFARE OF THE UNIVER-SITY OF NEVADA. Their nomination to legislative offices was by the unanimous will of the people and meant but one thing. The intelligent voters realize and know beyond the peradventure of a doubt that the election of these two men means the release of our great institution of learning from the influence of politics and the Espose,

the realization of a glorious dream,

the building up in our State of a University that will redound to our honor

throughout the world.

PATRONIZE THE BOYS

The Football Game Saturday

Should Be Liberally

Patronized.

The coming football game between the University and San Jose Normal teams promises to be one of the most exciting and closely contested games ever played on the local gridiron. The California boys have made an enviable record for themselves this season and are looking forward to Saturday's game with confidence.

Last night's practice up on the hill was the snappiest up to date. The second eleven is coming out of its slump and things in general are taking on a rosier hue. Although Moorman and Smith, the crack half-backs, are out of the game at present, it is hoped that at least one of them will be able to play on Saturday. Perry has not recovered sufficiently from the injury sustained in the Reliance game to play

yet, but he will be in form for the games with Berkely and Stanford. A money was lost on the Reliance game

the management hopes that the crowd

next Saturday will more than make up the deficiency.

Shorty Soliloquizes.

Last evening a slim crew gathered to hear certain Republican nominees

expatiate upon their manifest destiny to be the choice of the State for the offices to which they aspire. Post

Cleveland had made his opening remarks and was just about to tell why

Nevada's population decreased ten per cent under Republican prosperity,

when Sherry the bootblack came to his rescue. The town alcalde and county judge was waxing warm in his praise of McKinley when P. L. Flanigan left the platform and squelched

the only truly enthusiastic Republican speaker in Washoe county.

Big Doings Tomorrow Night.

The Bryan and Newlands parade

Saturday evening will take place according to program. The procession will form on Second street between Virginia and Sierra streets. At the conclusion of the parade there will be a red hot meeting in the pavilion.

WEATHER PROPHETCY

The Journal's Copyrighted Guess
at What the Weather

Will Be.

(Copyrighted, 1900, by W. T. Foster.)

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 2.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of storm wave to cross continent 8th to 12th, warm wave 7th to 9th, cool wave 10th to 14th.

One of the principal storm waves of November will reach the Pacific coast about 13th, cross west of Rockies by close of 14th, great central valleys 15th to 17th, Eastern States 17th. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 16th,
great central valleys 18th, Eastern States 20th.

Warm wave will cross west of Rockies
about 13th, great central valleys 15th, Eastern States 17th. Cool wave
will cross west of Rockies about 16th,
great central valleys 18th, Eastern States 20th.

This cool wave will be the most important weather feature of the month and not far from 22d will culminate in a cold wave with stormy weather from about 15th to 22d.

There seems to be two or three days of milder temperature not far from 21st, and then a second cool wave going to low temperatures about 22d or 24th.

Look Out for It.

When O. C. Wallace was in Elko
last week looking after the Congressional fight, he said to certain parties that a circular attacking Mr. Newlands would be issued in the closing hours of the campaign, and that it would hurt
Mr. Newlands and hurt him bad.

This is simply to warn the voters of Elko county against taking any stock in any circular that emanates from the Stewart-Wallace-Flanigan syndicate of political dead beats and Republican bosses. They are determined to elect Mr. Farrington, no matter what the cost may be.—Elko Independent.

LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIES

Items of Street and Town too
Brief for Separate Heads.

The Sophomore reception takes place
this evening.

E. A. Smothers, the real estate agent, sold two more building lots yesterday.

There are now 264 telephones on the local exchange and new instruments are going in daily.

Fifteen dances are on the program
for the kindergarten benefit to-night.
Excellent music and a pleasant evening is promised.

On the fifteenth of this month the Gazette plant will be removed to No. 12,
First street, the brick building formerly used as a "shirt factory."

William Hunter, the attenuated center of the Varsity football team, went to Virginia yesterday. He traveled on half rates, owing to his light weight.

Ticket number 88 won the sealakin cape disposed of by Philip Russak at Rosenthal & Armanko's last night.
The tickets were drawn by J. J.
Keegan, the traveling representative of the San Francisco Chronicle, and Fred Rittenger of this city.
